Volume 45, No. 28, July 14, 2020 / Southside Baptist Church / P.O. Box 1594 / 1028 South Water Avenue, Gallatin, TN 37066 (615) 452-5951 / The Grow in Grace Newsletter is a WEEKLY Bible Study, plus local church news notes— designed first and foremost for members and those attending services at Southside Church; and is sent forth with the desire to aid one and all, (including friends far and wide), in the experience of 2 Peter 3:18. "But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our LORD JESUS CHRIST!"

BUILDING UP ONE ANOTHER WITH THE LOVE OF CHRIST! _

When the LORD JESUS SAVES us, He by His Holy Spirit baptizes us into HIS BODY (1 Cor. 12:13); and He PLACES us (1 Cor. 12:14-18) in His Body as it pleases Him. IF YOU OR I are not specifically PLACED in a local assembly of saints in Christ, where we are functioning, contributing members, (carrying out 'ONE ANOTHER CHURCH WORK') – THEN, at best, WE ARE resisting, grieving, quenching the Holy Spirit's work; at worst, we are not IN CHRIST. (1 Cor. 12:18-27)

BY THE following 44 love expressions WE DEMONSTRATE that we are IN CHRIST; and that we are REAL functioning disciples of JESUS CHRIST!

- 1. "...Be at peace with each other" (Mark 9:50) 2. "...Wash one another's feet" (John 13:14) 3. "...Love one another..." (John 13:34-35; John 15:12, 17) 4. "Love one another" (Romans 13:8)
- 5. "Be devoted to one another in brotherly love..." (Romans 12:10) 6. "Honor one another above yourselves" (Romans 12:10)

7. “Live in harmony with one another...” (Romans 12:16) 8. “... Stop passing judgment on one another” (Romans 14:13)

9. “Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you...” (Romans 15:7) 10. “...instruct one another” (Romans 15:4) 11.

“Greet one another with a holy kiss...” (Romans 16:16; I Corinthians 16:20, 2 Cor. 13:12; I Thess. 5:26) 12. “...When you come together to eat, wait for each other” (I Corinthians 11:33)

13. “...Have equal concern for each other” (I Corinthians 12:25)

14. “...Serve one another in love” (II Corinthians 13:12)

15. “Carry each other’s burdens...” (Galatians 6:2) 16. “If you keep on biting and devouring each other...you will be destroyed by each other” (Galatians 5:15) 17. “Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other” (Galatians 5:26)

18. “...Be patient, bearing with one another in love” (Ephesians 4:2) 19. “Be kind and compassionate to one another...” (Ephesians 4:32) 20. “...forgiving each other...” (Ephesians 4:32)

21. “Speak to one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs” (Ephesians 5:19)

22. “Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ” (Ephesians 5:21) 23. “...in humility consider others better than yourselves” (Philippians 2:3) 24. “Do not lie to each other...” (Colossians 3:9) 25. “Bear with each other...” (Colossians 3:13)

26. “...Forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another” (Colossians 3:13) 27. “Teach...[one another]” (Colossians 3:16) 28. “...admonish one another” (Colossians 3:16) 29. “...make your love increase and overflow for each other” (I Thessalonians 3:12)

26. “...Forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another” (Colossians 3:13) 27. “Teach...[one another]” (Colossians 3:16) 28. “...admonish one another” (Colossians 3:16) 29. “...make your love increase and overflow for each other” (I Thessalonians 3:12)

28. “...admonish one another” (Colossians 3:16) 29. “...make your love increase and overflow for each other” (I Thessalonians 3:12)

30. “Encourage one another” (I Thessalonians 4:18, 5:11; Hebrews 10:25) 31. “...Build each other up...” (I Thessalonians 5:11) 32. “Encourage one another daily...” (Hebrews 3:13) 33. “Spur one another on toward love and good deeds” (Hebrews 10:24) 34. “...Do not slander one another” (James 4:11)

35. “Don’t grumble against each other” (James 5:9) 36. “Confess your sins to each other...” (James 5:16) 37. “...Pray for each other” (James 5:16) 38. “...Love one another deeply, from the heart” (I Peter 1:22, 4:8) 39. “...Live in harmony with one another...” (I Peter 3:8)

40. “Greet one another with a kiss of love” (I Peter 5:14) 41. “Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling” (I Peter 4:9)

42. “Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others...” (I Peter 4:10) 43. “...Clothe yourselves with humility toward one another...” (I Peter 5:15) 44. “Love one another” (I John 3:11, 23, 4:7, 11, 12; II John 5)

OBVIOUSLY, the Holy Spirit deems the ONE ANOTHERS to be vital— thus, some Biblical principles as to applying them!

1. Receiving must precede giving because we can’t give what we don’t have. “... the love of God is shed abroad in [has flooded] our hearts by the Holy Spirit, which is given unto us.” (Romans 5:5) “... the fruit of the Spirit is love...” (Galatians 5:22) “Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.” (1 John 4:7-8) Thus, indeed, we must first receive, that is, WE MUST BE BORN AGAIN! We then give to others what he has given to us. Understanding this principle of stewardship should strike a blow against our pride— for we are simply distributing God’s resources, not our own. (1 Chron. 29:9-14) REALITY: We must remember— he that loves not knows not God! (1 John 4:7-8)

2. We are to give the ONE ANOTHERS freely because we have freely received. “Freely you have received, freely give” (Matthew 10:8). We should never give with the expectation of a pay back or with a required condition. Let us give freely.

3. We must give the ONE ANOTHERS generously because we have generously received. Paul told Timothy, “The grace of our Lord was poured out on me abundantly” (1 Timothy 1:14). God is not stingy, and neither should we be. “How great is the love the Father has lavished on us” (1 John 3:1). Interestingly, we cannot really begin to comprehend all that God has given to us until we begin to give to others. In Philemon 6, the apostle Paul said, “I pray that you may be active in sharing your faith, so that you will have a full understanding of every good thing we have in Christ.”

URGENT ALERT: GIVING GOD’S ‘ONE ANOTHERS’ TO EACH OTHER IN A LOCAL BODY OF BELIEVERS REQUIRES A REGULAR COMMITMENT OF— T I M E!

4. We must give the ONE ANOTHERS indiscriminately. “My brothers, as believers in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ, don’t show favoritism” (James 2:1). What’s the point? Don’t be selective in which one another you give. Don’t have the attitude that says, “I’ll greet you, but I’m not going to accept you. I’ll admonish you, but I’m not going to encourage you.” Minister all of the one another to any believer, as opportunity comes.

We must not have an attitude that says, “I’ll comfort my children, but not my spouse; or I’ll accept people like me, but not anyone who is different." Moreover, since we are to do good to all men, (Galatians 6:10), the one anothers are also great ways to minister to unbelievers.

For sure, some people are more difficult to love than others, but that challenge may be the "test" of whether or not we truly love as Christ loved us!

Jesus commands: "Love your enemies. . . If you love those who love you, what do ye more than others, do not even pagans do that?" (Matt. 5:43-47) AND REMEMBER: The Lord Jesus himself said: "It is more blessed to give than to receive." (Acts 20:35).

5. We are to relate to ONE ANOTHER in the same way God has related to (loved) us. "As I have loved you, so you must love one another" (John 13:34). The command to "love others" was not new because part of the Jewish law was to "love your neighbor as yourself" (Lev. 19:18).

It was the qualification to "love others as I have loved you" that was so radical. During his earthly ministry, Jesus thoroughly defined love for the first time. It's not that Christ raised the bar so high that we could not participate. Rather, he actually made the message of love so plain that we cannot claim ignorance! He simply said, "Do to others as I have done to you!"

During Jesus' three years of earthly ministry, he basically just performed the one anothers. For the Bible says he went about "doing good", (Acts 10:38). What good did He do? Jesus showed the world how love behaves. How wide spread was his ministry? If the many things Jesus did were all written down, "Even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written" (John 21:25).

And how did Jesus train his disciples?

He called them just to "be with him" (Mark 3:14). Their curriculum simply consisted of hearing Jesus teach truth and then observing him demonstrating love. So for thirty-six months, day after day, they witnessed him ministering the one another to other people.

They also experienced firsthand his ministry of the one another to them as individuals.

It's important to note that Jesus proclaimed the New Commandment at the end of his three-year ministry, not at the beginning.

Just hours before his death, Jesus said, "Love one another as I have loved you." Basically, he was saying, "What you have seen me do for others and for you, go and do likewise." In response to this statement, Simon Peter might have thought, I remember when Jesus spoke encouraging words to the condemned, adulterous woman.

And although the disciples were shocked at Jesus' acceptance of the Samaritan woman (John 4:27), they must have been stirred deeply when they noticed the profound impact it had on her life and others. "Many of the Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony" (John 4:39).

But the powerful ministry of acceptance was really driven home when, through the course of three years, the disciples realized that Jesus accepted them just the way they were, with all their flaws and inconsistencies.

The disciples themselves were a shady group — uneducated fishermen, a tax collector, a betrayer — men of fear and unbelief. And yet Jesus continually looked beyond their imperfections, accepted them as they were, continued to love them deeply, and he kept on doing sacrificial things so that they could become what they should become!

In commanding us to love others, God is not asking us to do something that he has not already done. He is not asking us to give to others anything that he has not already given to us.

It's also worthy to note that throughout the thirty-three years of Jesus' earthly life, he was simply sharing with the world the love that he was constantly receiving from his Father: "As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you" (John 15:9). Most important is the reality that Jesus did more than leave an example—HE has given the INDWELLING HOLY SPIRIT to empower us for the life to which He has called us: Romans 5:5; John 14:12-20!

7. When we minister the ONE ANOTHERS to other people, we are ministering to Christ. "God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them" (Hebrews 6:10). When we love others, in a sense, we are loving Christ. And when we minister to others, we are somehow actually ministering to Christ (Matthew 25:31-40); and when we treat other believers in an evil way, we are doing so to Jesus: Acts 9:4-5. In Christ, this mystery is based on the fact that Believers are the body of Christ. To love one another is to love Christ, and to neglect or harm one another is to neglect or harm Christ (Acts 9:4).

8. When we minister the ONE ANOTHERS, we are dispensing God's "glorious riches." "God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus" (Phil. 4:19). Among the abundant "riches" of Christ Jesus are the one others!

By calling upon us to distribute the one anothers, God allows us to be stewards of his "glorious riches." What an honor. And that's the essence of the NEW commandment of John 13:34-35. We need to have a continuous commitment to receive and distribute his glorious riches!

9. The ONE ANOTHERS are the key to effective evangelism.

As we minister God's love to ONE ANOTHER in Christ and to others — some of the lost will be deeply touched and drawn to the source of so great a love: "All men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another" (John 13:35).

Is it possible that people can recognize our Christianity not by what we say, but by how we love? Is it possible that they might be more receptive to the claims of Christ after they have experienced firsthand the love of Christ?

This is similar to the strategy that Peter gives to wives who have unbelieving husbands: "Wives, in the same way be submissive to your husbands so that, if any of them do not believe the word, they may be won over without words by the behavior of their wives" (1 Peter 3:1). 10. The ONE ANOTHERS reveal that LIFE IN THE BODY OF CHRIST REQUIRES A COMMITMENT OF TIME!

REALITY: Our culture is anti-family and anti-church when it comes to TIME. Even in many Christian homes the time requirements for providing for financial needs, plus the time required for the status symbol 'needs' of a family, and other 'outside the home' TIME demands LEAVE MANY families living almost as strangers under the same roof.

This tragedy is multiplied when it comes to a church family — too often we are mere 'nice' strangers who briefly see each other weekly together... if nothing else gets in the way. REALITY: Culture is not going to change. We will have to make CHOICES to value FAMILY and people over 'stuff' and FAMILY and people over 'events' and/or status.

LIKEWISE for the Church: As I look at the will of God in the ONE ANOTHERS— I will now have to make some fresh CHOICES about HOW I spend my time. Let me remember that EXCUSES are a dime a dozen! And let me be honest: Behind every excuse is a CHOICE I made. No excuse can hide the reality of nor cancel the upcoming DAMAGE from bad CHOICES!
